NIT W. FRANCISCO. JOHN D. CALDWELL EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

OFFICE, 14 WEST FOURTH-STREET

WEDNESDAY..... ...NOVEMBER 23

To-morrow is Thanksgiving Day. To-morrow should be an unselfish day. It should not be one to surfait the body, but one in which to feed the better nature. A good way to do that-long tried and never found fruitless-is to do good. If we are heartily, not ostensibly, thankful, there will be but little difficulty for each of us to use our comforts so se to merit and obtain thanks for our benevolent works. With some people the day set spart as Thanksgiving Day is one for the re-union of kindred. That is one of the marked features of this annual observance. There, however, is a class of community that, in a strict sense, is kindred to us, though separated by almost an obliteration of the faintest lineaments of resemblance. We mean the forsaken, the destitute, the abandoned. One day in the year, at least, professed Christians should introduce themselves to the lame, the halt and the blind, the poor, the sick and the afflicted.

There are those in the prisons, in the hospitals, in the asylums, the Widows' Home, the cellars, the cabins and caverns, that we have slighted and forgotten; that we, in the surfeit of our abundance, have failed to realize that we are indeed our brother's keeper. Our wealth, our luxury, our good fortune for auother year will have an additional relish, if we take care to night to remember the widow, the orphan, the sick and sorrowing, and endeavor to mingle with their bitter cup a joy on the morrow, which will insure them to say: This is indeed to us a Thanksgiving Day. We have some renewed hope to encourage us on in the battle of life."

A group of the bright-eyed children of the poor can be seen at the Bethel, on Frontstreet, near Sycamore, Thanksgiving afternoon, relishing the good things provided for them by the Missionary. Let every one, us he has the opportunity, seek out and serve tu some sincere and serviceable way the needy and neglected. The Sons of Malta will be noiselessly efficient, we feel confident.

The Days of Rumors.

There is a flying artillery battery of rumore nightly flashing fire and smoke along the telegraphic wires. Brownsville sent its quota, but Continus has taken refuge in the chapparels. Charlestown and Harper's Ferry kept up a running fire of rumors, and the and is not yet. Mexico is a California gold mine of raw materials in the rumor line, and when hard pushed, the wooden-legged hero, SANTA ANNA, is resurrected and limps his hour on Mexican soil.

The rumor of the wires yesterday aftersoon from Mexico was that Generals MIRA-NON and Masques had seized a conducta of two millions of specie, and fled for England on a British steamer, and that the army had pronounced for Sasta Anna. Also that dispatches had been received by Governor Wise from Governor Cuass, and from United States Marshal Joneson, of Ohio, that Brown's son Jons, and others, amounting to near one thousand men, were arming in this State, and would leave for Charlestown to reseue the impressed insurgents.

The rumor as to the United States Marshal has been contradicted, and the one as to Gov. Cuar will prove to be a hoar.

The Union of States. The Union of Hearts.

We shall be very great hypocrites if, to-morrow, as intelligent, generous people of twentysix States, bowing in unison together before the same bountiful common Pather and making a rateful acknowledment of mercies enjoyed, se do not rid ourselves of all ungenerous and wicked suspicions and prejudices against each other as citizens of different sections of this great country. The Northern and Southern, Englern and Western people who recognize their relation to each other as Christian brothren, members of one common Confederacy, should generously throw away, to-morrow, the distrust now felt and those apprehensions that do each other a discredit, and clinch bands again in a new bond of union-a union of boarts as well as of hands. The West interpossa her voice of imploration. Let this united Thanksgiving Day be a bright one for the fortwenty cents. Warranted to please. United States.

Thanksgiving Holiday of the Schools. Young America is to have its day with the Poritans, and enter the congress of the allied powers to discuss turkey. The schools will close for the week with the recitations today. Be thankful, happy youngsters, for your days of liberty!

From Charlestown.

CHARLESTOWS, November 22.-Yesterday was spont in a grand military parade and review by Governor Wise. During the after-noon the Governor and his staff had a long moon the Governor and his staff had a long interview with the condemned. The Governor urged on them the necessity of preparing for death, as the sentence of the Court would be carried out without any inteference on his part. Brown declared himself prepared to tie. He justified his course, only regretting his error in not allowing the train to pass without interruption. Cook said he was willing to be shot, but always had a great repugnance to hanging. Governor Wise said that Coppie was the only one that he had ever thought of commuting, but he had now determined to hang them all. hang them all.

The Governor yesterday received a dispatch from the Governor of South Carolins, tendering him any amount of military aid in the defense

Governor Wise replied by thanking him for the offer, but assuring the Governor that Vir-ginia was able to defend herself.

The Richmond military was all ordered to the Richmond military was all ordered to the Richmond military was all ordered to the Richmond course, but the people protested against such a course, declaring that if there was any necessity for them to come, that here was any necessity for them to come, that here was till existed.

Finally, Governor Wise ordered two Richmond companies to remain, and also the Peterburg Artillery.

Suicide.

PHICADELPHIA, November 22.—John D. Winslow, Agent for Messrs. Sackett, Davis & Co., jewelers of New York, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head yesterday. He had entrested a box of jewelry, valued at $3,000, to a colored porter to carry to the office of Messrs. Draper, Tifft & Co. The box not being delivered, Mr. Winslow supposed it was stolen, and informed the police, who were stolen, and informed the police, who were unable to recover it until after the commission of the deed. He wrote letters to his mother, at Providence, his employers, and to Mr.
Arnold, telling them of his loss and his intention to commit suicide. This morning the box was recovered, having been left by mistake at another jewolry establishment on Marketstreet. Winslow was a single man, aged twenty-eight.

Wreck of an Unknown Steamer.

SACKVILLE, November 22 .- The schooner ictoria which has arrived at Halifax reports having passed within six hundred yards, yesterday, of a large steamer, broken across the rocks off Gusboro, U. S. The wreck is de-scribed as having a black hull, sharp bows and only a mizzen-mast standing. It is impossi-ble from the description to identify the vessel. LATER.—The description of the wreck is said to answer that of the Cunard packet steamer Delta, running between Bermuda, Halifax and St. Johns. The Delta left Halifax and St. Johns. The Delta left Halifax on Saturday for Newfoundland. It is not likely that she had many passengers, and hopes are entertained that all were saved.

A CONSUMPTIVE LIA'E.

SAVED.—Consumption, primarily and estationally due to a disordered nutrition, can be rationally attacked only by a medicine which renewates the nutritive powers. Such a medicine is the PERUVIAN SYRUP, whose chief ingredient acts directly and immediately on the blood and arrests the diseases safely and surely.

"BALTIMORE, July 15, 1851.—I was suffering with a severe catarrhal cough, accompanied by night-sweats, loss of appetite and great debility, which was daily increasing. In this state I commenced taking the Peruvian Syrup. In a few days, and before I had used the second bottle, my cough lessened, night-sweats coased, appetite was restored, and with it atrength and vigor beyond what I had enjoyed for ten years, being able to walk several miles each day without fatigue, while hitherto I could walk only a short distance.
